

Rose Hill – you are fantastic!

ROSE HILL residents came out in force to give their support to Comic Relief on Friday 18 March. They baked cakes, ran a "funny" bingo session, put on a wonderful kids disco and even played a football match in drag!

Over £700 was raised for the national charity which just goes to show that Rose Hill can "do something funny for money"!

Organisers send their sincere thanks to all the local businesses, community groups and individuals who gave their time, or who donated raffle prizes, cakes and pizzas for the Red Nose teas. They are:

- Pizza Hut Delivery – big thank you to Shakeel and his team
- Oasis Hair and Beauty – thanks to Lynne Carter
- Tesco Community Champion – Pat Green
- Paul Jones disco
- Papa John's Pizza – many thanks to Geoff
- Café Spice
- Rose Hill Community Association - thank you to Carol Davis and team
- Rose Hill Tenants and Residents Association
- African Women's Group
- Polish Women's Group
- Swahili Speaking Women's group
- Anna Yasavur
- Cakes for Kids - thank you to Henriette

Red Nose Cupcakes at the Children Centre

A SWEET smell of yummy cupcakes fills the air at Rose Hill Children Centre. It is Red Nose Day, and the six women and their children from the African Women's Group are working hard to mix eggs, butter, flour and sugar. Guided by the expert bakers of Free Cakes for Kids Oxford, they are trying a new speciality: Red Nose cupcakes, which are lavishly decorated with vanilla and chocolate butter cream icing and, of course, red noses. "These community baking sessions are great fun," says Normalisa from the Rose Hill group. "We baked about 100 cupcakes today and will donate them to the Community Centre for their party later."

If you are interested in running your own community baking session, please contact Free Cakes for Kids at oxford@freecakesforkids.org.uk or 242207. All you need is a group of ten people and a community kitchen, Free Cakes for Kids will take care of the rest.
